SOCIAL

Parsonage Wedding.
Mr. Edward B. Kerchner, machine operator at the Bijou theater, and Miss Dilea M. Reeder were married Wednesday afternoon at the First Methodist Episcopal parsonage, the Rev. James E. Bird performing the ceremony.

Another Dance Tonight.
Owing to the large attendance at the dance given Wednesday evening in Hoffman Hall by the advanced class of the Hoffman Hall Dancing Academy and by request of his pupils and patrons, Prof. Clarence L. Gardner, director of the school, announces that a similar dance will be given this evening at the same place.

Moon Club Dance.
The Moon Club will give its September dance at the armory this evening, and the Cadenza orchestra will render a full program of music.

Women Meet.
An interesting meeting of the women of the Central Christian church was held in the church parlors this afternoon, and work for the coming winter was planned and discussed.

Informal Dance.
An informal dance will be given tomorrow evening at the armory and a large attendance is expected. The dance music will be rendered by the Cadenza orchestra.

NEGROES

Accused of "Bootlegging"
Are Brought to Jail by Deputy Marshal.

Albert Jones and George McCullah, negroes of the West Milford section who were arrested for "bootlegging" in Barbour county by E. D. Hupp, federal deputy marshal, were brought to the county jail from Philippi Thursday morning by Mr. Hupp and imprisoned to await the October term of federal court here. They were committed by L. V. G. Morris, United States commissioner at Philippi, in default of furnishing bonds of $300 each.

Now is the Time for Men's Madras and Percale Shirts

Negligee Shirts are worn the year around, but for many men the first week of autumn generally means the passing of the soft shirt and the donning of their chiffrons with carefully selected negligee of a more conservative kind, and about the same time they usually evince an interest in brown neckwear tones. Some very pleasing new shirts in madras and percales, pleated and in tasteful stripes at $1.00. We have a large number of these, for we expect a large demand and the pattern variety is extensive.

Prepare for rainy day--Beautiful Silk Umbrellas

A Silk Umbrella for 98c. Yes, and a good one, too, the best we have offered at this price. There are styles for both men and women in this "just in" assortment. That is, they are umbrellas with long, slender handles and some with conventional crook handles. But they are all..... 98c

SMART AUTUMN SUITS, COATS and SKIRTS

Never were women's tailor-made garments so captivating as the showing for early autumn. We've a gorgeous display of the most charming suits, stunning coats and gracefully draped skirts, triumphs of tailors' art and skill, all at prices totally out of keeping with the garment. In each garment lies the secret of success of our widely popular Suit Section. No garment offered that Dame Fashion has not stamped with approval.

No place like ours for Outfitting the Babies

Bless their little hearts. Nothing is too good for them. We are showing an excellent line of Caps, and mothers know that nothing becomes a child more than a nice cap.

We have put forth every effort in selecting this line and feel sure that you will be pleased when you examine them.

NOTICE.

To whom it may concern:
Notice is hereby given that the undersigned, Andrew Moore, residing in the town of Shinnston, Harrison County, West Virginia, will on the 22nd day of September, 1911, at the court house of said county, make application to the Circuit Court of said Harrison county for a state license to carry a revolver.

My occupation is that of special policeman for the Fairmont and Clarksburg Traction Company, having been appointed such special police officer by the Governor of the State of West Virginia in accordance with the provisions of Section 31 of Chapter 145 of the Code of West Virginia.

ANDREW MOORE.

HUSBAND

Gordon personally investigated the case but Mrs. Allen, victim of the alleged assault, refused to say anything against her husband, although her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Nettie Allen, wife of William Allen, declared that the arrested man had cut his wife on the arm, shoulder and breast, the latter wound being quite serious. When informed that a warrant had been issued by the justice, city authorities turned Allen over into custody of county authorities.
